THOUGHTS FROM THE YOUTH MINISTER

Another month has passed and we are well on way into the New Year. The youth were blessed to be involved at a conference early in January. We are also very blessed to have a church van that we could use for this trip. Our next major trip will be on March 2-4, the students need to turn in their twenty dollar deposit Sunday Feb. 5th. This trip will be a life changing event, I have personally participated in this youth conference my entire life and each year God shows up and changes lives. Please be in prayer for this conference and our student that they will be receptive to God's call on their life. Also, I would encourage your participation in the Winter-Fest Dinner and Basket Auction as it is coming up on February 18th. Again, we say thank you for your prayers and support of the youth group, and thank you to the parents for having the kids here.

In Christ,
Matt White

DUTY makes us do things well,
but love makes us do them beautifully.
Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
1 Corinthians 13:6-7

With the celebration of Valentines nearing we are surrounding by thoughts of love. Love comes from numerous places, and in many forms, but the question we must answer is “what is Love”. For those that enjoy being truthful rather than boasting about the negative things of life, you might be able to say they have love. For those who take pride in protecting their family, or those who trust the people they love until it hurts, you might be able to say they have love. For those who look to the stars for their dreams, and those who continue even though they aren't reaching the star, you might be able to say they have Love. But most of all there is one that answers the question of “what is Love.” He involved each of these characteristics by painting a picture of love on a cross, for undeserving sinners like you and I. This Valentine's Day I challenge you to find someone and shower them with the Love of Christ.

Bro. Matt
